The Kingsley Russell Co. playing at the Opera House this week is one of the best repertoire companies that has ever played here. Every member of the company is an artist in his or her special line in every sense of the word. The Kingsley Russell Company have played here during the Street Fair several years but seem to be better every season they play. To night (Friday) they play their feature bill entitled Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Don't fail to see this play as it is one of the strongest plays ever presented in this city by a repertoire company and for which the manager Mr. Russell pays a high royalty.

See the Montgomery City school display in the rear of Art Hall. It is a great credit to our educational institution of which we are so proud.

Notice.

If you have not had your old deeds re-recorded, you will do well to send them in at once, as the time for re-recording free of charge will soon be up. All records from 1 to 50 inclusive (except 41 and 44) were burned. All records lettered A. B. C. etc., were saved.

LESLIE ELLIS, Recorder of Deeds.

Blades-Berry.

Leslie Blades and Miss Lula Berry were married at the home of the bride's father, Capt. Robert Berry, in Williamsburg, last Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Rev. Eagan Herndon officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few immediate friends.

Mr. Blades is the miller at Mincola and is one of the active, energetic young business men of Montgomery county. His bride belongs to one of the best families on Nine Mile and has been popular in the social circles of her vicinity.—Fulton Gazette.

Box Supper at Egbert.

The box supper given at Fairview School house Saturday night was a great success. There were only nine boxes, but from the lively bidding it was evident that the gentlemen know there were good cooks in the community.

After disposing of the boxes a cake was given to the most 'popular lady' and a pistol to the 'ugliest man.' The Misses Virgie Autenrieth, Oia and Georgia Gregory were the contestants in the 'popular lady' contest. Miss Autenrieth was the successful one. In the latter contest Mr. Maxey and Mr. John Young were the contestants. Mr. Young was the winner.

It was evident that there was partiality shown in the latter contest, but Mr. Young was almost unanimously chosen as the 'ugliest man'.

Mr. Maxey was the auctioneer and he surely proved himself equal to the occasion. The proceeds amounted to $20.00, part of which will be used to purchase a dictionary for the school.

The teacher and the pupils thank the patrons for their liberality. Whenever you want to find loyal people see those of Fairview District.

TACY FAIRCHILD, Teacher.

Montgomery defeated the Wellsville team Sunday by a score of 14 to 7. The Montgomery boys had the game all the way through. Wells and Armstrong the twirlers for Wellsville were both hit hard, seventeen hits being made off of them, three of them being three baggers. Height was in the box for Montgomery and only allowed five hits. The features of the game was the hitting of John Wilson and Sy Maupin and the pitching of Height.

There is no better shorthand College anywhere, than Allen Moore's College at Chillicothe, Mo. Every graduate is holding a good position. If any of our readers desire a good position as stenographer, enter at once. Success is certain.

Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position.

After a woman is happily married, says the Atchison Globe, she is usually willing to admit that she had a good deal to do with the "proposing." A pretty young Atchison married woman confessed that she managed her only proposal in this way. One evening the man she afterwards married attempted to kiss her. She drew back, saying: "The only man who can ever kiss me is the man I expect to marry." The young man laughed, and said: "Well, Miss Alice, is that a hint?"

The girl replied: "Well, that is the only condition under which you can kiss me." The man kissed her, and she began the next day working on her trousseau.

LOMBARDO'S BAND.

is one of the Principal Features of the Carnival. Leader wins Honors.

The leaning musical feature of Mexico's fall celebration, Oct. 9-14 is Lombardo's Royal Venice City concert Band. Lombardo's reputation as a conductor will be shown by an incident in his career, while playing at Young Ocean Pier, Atlanta City, N. J. 1903.

The great competitor of the Ocean Pier was the Auditorium Steeplechase Pier in the same city. Sousa's band played at the latter in opposition to Lombardo's Royal Marine, each being contracted with for a season of seven weeks. Sousa's band cost $7,000 per week for five weeks after which his contract was cancelled.

Lombardo's Royal Marine Band of Italy was composed of fifty-five pieces at a cost of $2,700 per week. The entire seven weeks were filled out at the Ocean Pier and Capt. Young, on examination of his books for the season, found that they showed $60,000 profit.

In order to show a slight mark of his esteem and appreciation of the magnificent services rendered by Signor G. B. Lombardo, Capt. Young presented him with a gold watch valued at $500. In addition to this the clever musician and composer was presented with a magnificent locket, in which a diamond valued at $350.00 was set the reverse side bearing an inscription from some of the leading people of Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and New York who had been steady patrons of the Ocean Pier during the Signor's most successful season.

Spooner-Underweisen.

Harry Spooner and Miss Bertha Underweisen were united in marriage at Chillicothe, Mo., last Wednesday evening. Mr. Spooner is a brother of Mrs. R. H. Bailey of this place and was employed at the electric light plant here for several months last winter. We clip the following from the Wheeling Democrat:

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the immediate relatives and a few friends of the families were present to witness the ceremony.

The bride and groom are well known to our readers. The bride is a daughter of Mike Underweisen, one of Wheeling township's most prominent farmers and is known and liked by all for her sweet and amiable disposition. Mr. Spooner is one of Wheeling's best young men and has the respect and confidence of all who know him.

The happy young people arrived in wheeling Thursday night and went to their home in the north part of town which Mr. Spooner had lately furnished ready for housekeeping.

POPULAR LADY CONTEST.

The following are the conditions of the TRIBUNE's Grand Gift Popular Ladies contest:

Every person paying money to the TRIBUNE for subscription, advertising or job printing will be entitled to votes at the rate of 200 votes for every dollar thus spent. Twenty-five per cent additional votes will be allowed for new subscribers. Votes will be issued at the time the money is paid and will be good for one day. No votes will be issued unless cash accompanies order. No ballots on which one name has been erased and another substituted, nor on which the number of votes has been changed will be counted.

Six gold watches will be distributed among the six townships in the county. To the leader in the township who has the highest number of votes over any other leader in any other township will be given a genuine Elgin movement in a 25 year, 14 karat engraved and diamond studded gold filled case, as a grand prize.

To the leader in each township, other than one which wins the grand prize, will be given a United States Watch Co., Waltham Massachusetts movement in a twenty year engraved gold filled case. All watches have the same guarantee of the old reliable firm of A. Vogt & Son, back of them that they would have, if purchased from them direct.

No prize will be given to any township where the leader does not poll 2,000 votes. In every township of the six mentioned where the leader polls less than 2,000 votes the gold watch will not be given. Each township has thus a chance to win either the gold watch or the diamond studded watch.

The contest will close Dec. 22, 1905, at 3 p. m.

Votes will be given from now on until the time of closing the contest. Anyone may enter a candidate by making a proper payment and giving the contestant's name and township.

No votes will be given on orders for stamped envelopes or postal cards except for the cost of the printing done at this office.
